The Conservation Leadership Award recognizes a sustained commitment to conservation efforts and the protection of wildlife by an individual whose work serves as an inspiration to others.

Nominators will be asked to provide the following information:

I. Describe the nominee’s history of commitment to conservation.

II. Describe how the nominee has aided in the protection of wildlife or natural resource conservation efforts. Please include specific examples.

III. Describe how the nominee has contributed positively to the Federation.

IV. Describe how the nominee has served as an inspiration to others.